Academic Requirements for Grades 9-12

1. Student-Athletes must pass 4 out of 5 classes.
2. Student-Athletes must have a 2.0 grade point average.
3. Student-athletes that do NOT attain a 2.0 grade point average, but have passed 4 out of 5 classes, AND have a grade point average greater than or equal to a 1.50, may qualify for CONDITIONAL ELIGIBILITY. Conditional Eligibility allows a student-athlete to maintain eligibility by attending study hall sessions in an effort to raise their grades above the minimum 2.0 requirement.

Conditional Eligibility:

1. Pertains to only one (1) Grade Card cycle (i.e. three weeks)
2. May only be utilized two (2) times per school year.
2. Students must attend a minimum of 10 study hall sessions during the three weeks of conditional eligibility. If the student fails to attend the minimum number of study hall sessions he/she will be declared immediately ineligible for three (3) weeks.
3. Grades will be checked on the Thursday of the third week of study hall to determine whether or not the student has reached the 2.0 grade point requirement. If the student has NOT attained the 2.0 grade point requirement, he/she will be deemed ineligible for three (3) weeks.

Student-athletes who do NOT pass 4 out of 5 classes, or attain the minimum 1.50 grade point average to qualify for conditional eligibility for the current grading period or previous trimester will be deemed ineligible in accordance with the MHSAA guidelines.

Student athletes who become academically ineligible at the end of the third trimester may attend summer school in order to gain eligibility for fall sports.

A student-athlete who does not attain a 2.00 GPA, but qualifies for “Conditional Eligibility” by earning a minimum 1.50 GPA, and DOES NOT attend summer school, will be deemed ineligible to compete in any interscholastic sport for the first three (3) weeks of the 1st marking period of the first trimester provided that they must attend mandatory study hall sessions in weeks 4, 5, and 6 of the first marking period and will be deemed conditionally eligible at that time. Grades will be checked using the progress report of the 1st trimester. The “Conditional Eligibility” exemption will be credited to the current school year.

Mandatory Study Hall Rules:

1. A student must show I.D. for admission
2. Study Hall sessions shall be Monday – Friday after school only unless changed by administration.
3. A student must attend a minimum of 10 study hall sessions over a three-week period to remain eligible to participate.
4. Tardiness is considered an absence. This will be handled as if a student-athlete had missed a practice.
5. If a student fails to attend the required number of study hall sessions within the three week period the student will become immediately ineligible for the remainder of the trimester.
6. A student must follow all Study Hall rules.

Study Hall Rules:

1. A student must have all the appropriate study materials upon entering Study Hall. Either written assignments or class related materials are required.
2. A student will not be allowed to leave the Study Hall for any reason.
3. A student must be attentive to his/her studies for the entire Study Hall period.
4. No Socializing
5. Students may be removed from Study Hall for failure to follow the rules. Removal from Study Hall will result in disciplinary action by his/her coach.

Daily attendance will be taken at all study hall sessions. If behavioral problems exist, or the student-athlete does not come prepared to study, the student will be asked to leave the room and will be face disciplinary action from his/her coach.

Renton Athletic Eligibility for grades (6-8)

(The Junior High does not offer a study hall and the high school can not accommodate both age levels of students.)

Students are eligible to participate in athletics if they have one E, however; they must have a 2.0 GPA.

A student with two E's will be deemed ineligible until the next progress report/marking period.

If the student is still ineligible at the time of progress report/marking period they will not be eligible for the remainder of that season/trimester.

Summer school credit will be considered for fall athletic eligibility.
